

Transition Town
Haslemere

30 ways to get involved with Transition Town Haslemere

- 1. Visit our website and learn some ways to reduce your carbon footprint and many other helpful articles www.transitionhaslemere.org
- 2. Sign up to our newsletter, then you can find out we are doing and what events are taking place visit our website or email us at transitiontownhaslemere@googlemail.com
- 3. Take part in Energy Monitor challenge for the 10:10 campaign
- 4. Download our document on how to reduce your carbon footprint
- 5. Join a working group
- 6. Refer a friend
- 7. Visit us at the monthly farmers market
- 8. Email us an idea
- 9. Comment on articles on our website and start a discussion
- 10. Come to one of our talks on sustainability, saving energy and greening your lifestyle, local food and more

Transition Town
Haslemere

30 ways to get involved with Transition Town Haslemere

11. Join our working groups

Carbon footprint.....

Landshare.....

Local Food.....

Traffic.....

Schools.....

12. Set up a new working group

13. Join our steering group

14. Have one of us come and chat to your organisation

15. Be a case study – tell us about any green changes (small or large) you have made to your lifestyle. These help others do the same.

16. Tell us of any good local green products, services or suppliers you have used

17. Send us a recipe using local food

18. Send us your tips for growing vegetables

19. Sign up to help at a local community garden

20. Come to one of our social events – see website and local press for details

Transition Town
Haslemere

30 ways to get involved with Transition Town Haslemere

- 21. Visit the national website www.transitiontowns.org and download the primer that explains everything in more detail
- 22. Volunteer to help with our energy descent plan
- 23. Tell us your skills, you never know how useful they could be (IT experts have helped enormously so far, but anything from art, to construction could be hugely helpful)
- 24. Let us know of any useful courses that are going on in the area or other resources you think may help or suggest a workshop that we could run
- 25. Let us know how we can help you – advice, information, support
- 26. Make a donation!
- 27. Help us with fundraising ideas
- 28. Tell your local club or organisations about us
- 29. Tell us about other environmental campaigns that we could support
- 30. Write an article for our website or newsletter, anything from book reviews to current issues